Department of Higher Education

F. 31(1) Edu-4/2015

Date: 23 Feb 2016

Order

In wake of NCTE (Recognition Norms & Procedure) Regulation 2014 which allows opening of new integrated programme and increase in the duration of ongoing programme and various requests received from Societies/institutions desirous of opening new colleges/new programme/increase in intake in existing programme the State Government announces its policy for granting NOC for establishing new teachers training colleges/opening new programme granting increase in seats in the ongoing approved programmes for 2017-18.

The State NOC for 2017-18 will be granted as per following policy:-

- i. No Objection Certificates for new B.Ed. colleges (or standalone B.Ed. Programme) shall be recommended only for tehsils which do not have any teacher-training college (List of such tehsils will be issued separately when recognition/NOC process for session 2016-17 is finalized). No Objection Certificate for setting up new B.Ed. College/course in a tehsil other than identified tehsils (i.e. tehsils without teacher-training college) will not be granted.
 - ii. 'No Objection Certificate' for Standalone new M.Ed. programme/course will not be granted.
 - iii. 'No Objection Certificate' for new B.P.Ed. programme/course shall be granted for all districts of the State.
 - iv. NOC to following teachers-training programmes will be granted throughout the State only in existing colleges as per following conditions, subjected to compliance of NCTE Regulations, 2014-
 - M.P.Ed. program only in those existing colleges which are offering B.P.Ed. programme / B.Sc. Physical Education/equivalent course/programme as per NCTE Regulations, 2014.
 - Four-year integrated BA-B.Ed and/or B.Sc.-B.Ed. in only those existing colleges which are already running B.A./B.Sc. programme or B.Ed. programme.
 - 3-Years integrated B.Ed.-M.Ed. programme leading to integrated B.Ed.-M.Ed. (integrated) degree in those existing colleges which are already offering B.Ed. programme/course.
- No Objection Certificate (NOC) for increase in seats in existing teacher-training programmes/courses will not be granted.
